Before the Revolution, a Carthusian monastery occupied a large tract of land in the southern Parisian suburb of Vauvert, a site where the Jardin du Luxembourg now stands.

In the early 17th century, a manuscript was gifted by Francois Hannibal d'Estrées, Marshal of King's Henri IV artillery, to the Chartreuse monks, who began distilling what was called 'the Elixir of Long Life.'

Today, the monks of the Chartreuse order use 130 different herbs and plants to create and distil the herbal liqueur at the monastery at Voiron in the French Alps, to a recipe known to only two of the brothers.

WINES WE RECOMMEND

NV J. Laurens, 'Blanquette de Limoux' — Languedoc FRA — 90
Produced 'Methode Traditionelle', these bubbles are a perfect aperitif. Green apple, apricot & acacia flowers, its crisp and refreshing.

2015 Cotier, Riesling — Mornington Peninsula VIC — 79
This textural Riesling in an interesting drop, its rich & pithy, but still clean & bright. Some dried apples, honey and lemongrass with a nutty, dry finish.

2016 Airlie Bank, Gewürztraminer blend 'Blanc III' — Yarra Valley VIC — 55
Lychee, ginger spice & lemongrass along with some varietal perfume & spice. The grapes spent some extended time on skins which adds some grippy tannins & texture.

2015 Jules — Provence FRA — 50
A riper than usual vintage has produced a very fruit forward Rosé. Strawberries & cream with a saline bite. Refreshing, straightforward & delicious.

2014 Huards, Cheverny Gamay blend 'Envol' — Loire Valley FRA — 86
Organic & Biodynamic, this wine is a joy to behold. Medium bodied, crunchy and full of juicy red fruits – cherries, red currants & wild strawberries. Plenty of fine tannins to keep you coming back for more!

2014 Inkwell, Shiraz 'Perfect Day' — McLaren Vale SA — 92
Winemaker Irina Santiago-Brown was the inaugural winner of the Women in Wine 'Viticulturist of the Year' in 2015. This intense but refined shiraz is perfectly ripened. Blackberry, plum and chocolate with a dry finish.
